

Andrew Lara, CCIM

Associate

Career Summary

Andrew began his career with DAUM Commercial Real Estate as an intern under Rudy Lara's supervision. From the start of his career, Andrew has been able to uncover rare off market opportunities that continually satisfy and meet his clients' requirements. He has a strong work ethic and drive to obtain new clients through canvassing, cold calling, and referrals. Andrew specializes in both the sales and leasing of industrial, manufacturing and warehousing facilities in the Los Angeles and Orange County Industrial Markets in Southern California. Andrew also specializes in Office and Retail in the Los Angeles Market.

Education

Educationally, Andrew obtained his B.A. in Business Economics from Cal State Fullerton. After graduation, Andrew lived abroad in Madrid, Spain for a year to attend a private language school and to travel throughout Europe.

Furthermore, Andrew participates in continuing education through real estate courses and conferences. After obtaining his California Real Estate Salesperson License, Andrew went on and achieved his California Real Estate Broker's License and CCIM Designation.
