

Bradley Levin

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Brad Levin joined DAUM in 1988 after graduating from Long Beach State with a degree in Business Communications. After 10 years with DAUM Mr. Levin was promoted to Vice President and has consistently been one of the top ten producers for DAUM in the South Bay market place, and again qualifying for the President's Club for 2002. Mr. Levin has represented numerous clients with involvement in real estate sales and leasing totaling in excess of $100 million dollars. In addition Mr. Levin has been active in all areas of commercial real estate including industrial, retail, office and investments and is a principal in development for his own portfolio. Including the recent development of the 80,000 SF N. Montclair Business Park and recent purchase of 9+ acres for development in North Rialto.

In 2003, Mr. Levin represented Westport Realty, which owns and manages over four million square feet, in the acquisition of the Century 105 Business Center. The Center consisted of three buildings over 68,000 square feet on 2.5 acres from First Industrial Properties. Additionally, Mr. Levin represented Agron (Adidas North America) Corporation in the purchase of 179,000 square foot warehouse distribution facility in Rancho Dominguez from Henkel Corporation and Schwarzkopf & Dep which was one of the larger industrial user sale completed in 2002. In 2005, Mr. Levin was invited to AMB Properties Broker Top Tier Club.

It is because of Mr. Levin strong ethical and working skills and own personal interests, that has allowed him to be very successful and knowledgeable in understanding and assisting his clients, in order to solve their overall needs.
