

Danielle Knudson

Director, Corporate Services

Danielle Knudson is a partner on the Corporate Services Team at DAUM Commercial Real Estate Services. Danielle started working for DAUM in 2003 and works with corporations and financial institutions to service their entire real estate needs on a local, national and international level. Those services include lease administration and maintenance, lease review, negotiations for new space, research for new sites, property evaluation, and financial analysis, to name just a few. Danielle is a licensed Broker by the State of California.

Born and raised in Orange County, Danielle is a sixth generation Californian.

Danielle graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interpersonal and Organizational Communication with a minor in Psychology from California State University, Long Beach. Throughout her educational career, Danielle has received numerous awards and recognitions, such as membership in the Golden Key national honor society, and numerous times on the Presidents List.

Before entering the field of Real Estate, Danielle worked for Marriott International for five years. The last three years of her Marriott career, Danielle helped the opening and continuous development of a new multi-million dollar timeshare resort in Newport Coast. This resort was part of the very fast growing timeshare division of Marriott referred to as Marriott Vacation Club International. Danielle was part of the management team at Newport Coast and developed and executed several new departments for the Front Office, including At Your Service, which is now a new rising department for all Marriotts Worldwide.

Danielle is also a proud DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution) member.
