

David Atkinson

Vice President

David W. Atkinson specializes in Tenant and Landlord representation within the greater Orange County Market, focusing on providing value added services to each assignment he works on. Demonstrating a strong work ethic and professionalism, David has continuously taken a consultative approach to commercial real estate which ensures that his clients are well informed to make the right business decisions.

David has over 10 years of marketing and advertising experience.

Having lived in Orange County his entire life, he has experienced the growth of the market first hand, which gives him a greater understanding of the historical trends in the market.

David resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife of 17 years, April, and three children, Brooke, Taylor, and Ryan. He also serves as Vice President of the Window Hill Home Owners Association, as well as having served as commissioner of the Canyon Hills Soccer Association Board of Directors.
