

Myles Helm

PRESIDENT

Myles was brought on board to assist DAUM in a company-wide effort to expand its client services beyond the industrial sector. Myles brings extensive experience in the office, retail and industrial sectors.

Myles began his commercial real estate career with the Charles Dunn Company in 1983 as an office leasing specialist focusing on the West San Fernando Valley office market. Myles joined Trizec Properties Inc. in 1986 as a leasing specialist. Myles became Director of Leasing for Trizec in 1988 with responsibility for approximately 2.5 million square feet of class "A" office property located in the Los Angeles area. In 1993, Myles was named Director of Business Development for Trizec, responsible for marketing real estate services including property management, brokerage, construction, construction management and technical services to commercial property owners. Myles also was involved in acquisitions in the Los Angeles market.

Myles re-joined Charles Dunn Company in 1995 as Executive Vice President/Branch Manager for their San Fernando Valley office. Myles' responsibility included facilitating relationships within the company between the brokerage and property management divisions. During his tenure, Myles significantly expanded the brokerage ranks and established both East and West Valley branch offices to better service those submarkets. Under Myles' leadership, these offices achieved the highest producing years in Charles Dunn's company history and also achieved the leading market share for office property listings in the San Fernando Valley.

In September 1999, Myles joined DAUM as Branch Manager for the Woodland Hills office. Myles expanded DAUM's presence into the Santa Clarita Valley and East San Fernando Valley by establishing offices in those submarkets. Myles was named President in December 2007.

Myles' role at DAUM is to insure the support of DAUM's professionals with excellent administrative assistance and cutting-edge research and technology in addition to recruiting top level brokerage talent from the industrial, office, retail and investment sectors.
